GENETISIM SHOW

-All players with an IAC can now make a reservation for a stand on the GenetiSim (1.000 euros), you can chose how many doses you'd like to sell.

To do so, click on the icon located on your doses in labs. You can also check and modify the amount of doses through the GenetiSim/My doses tab.

-Regional contests are now finished, if your animals qualified for the national contests, prepare them carefully. Good luck !!!

ANIMALS

Sheltered :

All species but buffalos

Free range :

Buffalos (buffalo ration), meat cattle and sheep (winter ration).

The cold season is here, don't forget to feed animals you leave outdoors with buffalo or winter rations.

SIMAGRI NEWS

The first Regional Agricultural Cooperatives (RACs) shops will open their door by the end of the week so you'll be able to buy there your fertilisers, seeds, accessories.

Starting next week RACs will also be able to produce and sell animal rations. If you are a breeder you'll be able to feed your livestock either with your own harvests or with foodstuff you'll buy from the SimAgri Cooperative or from the RACs.

Good game to you all and happy holidays (for those who can)

SIMAGRI CONTEST

-This Sunday 4th of July 2010 a lottery drawing took place. The prize was a SimAgri T-shirt and the winner is PUMACVX (France 2 server). Congratulations to him, the T shirt will be delivered very soon. Next lottery drawing will take place on Sunday the 18th of July 2010 and there will be 3 one year SimPass to win. Good luck to you all.

- INFO FOR THE ANNUAL SHOW CHEESE CONTESTS -

If you plan to sign up your cheeses for the coming Annual Show contests, here are some important info and dates :

-There are 2 categories, "Artisanal Cheese" and "Industrial Cheese".

- This competition will reward the best cheese for each region/Province and this for each cheese.

- For cheeses produced at national level, there will be as many rewards as there are regions/provinces.

- Each farmer can exhibit only a one kilo sample per cheese. Of course he can exhibit samples of the different cheeses he produces.

- The sample must be optimally matured to be registered for the competition.

- The cheese Shelf Life (SL) must not be exceeded on the day of the competition.

- Samples brought for the exhibition are lost.Each farmer who wants to exhibit cheese has to pay subscription and registration rights :

120 euros per sample exhibited

- Sample deposit dates :

Type of cheese	Sample deposit date
Goat Cheese (GC)	7th February to 1st March 23:00 (server time)
Soft Ripened Mody Cheese (SRMC)	7th February to 2nd March 23:00 (server time)
Soft Rind Washed Cheese (SRWC)	7th February to 3rd March 23:00 (server time)
Blue Cheese (BC)	7th February to 4th March 23:00 (server time)
Pressed Uncooked Cheese (PUC)	7th February to 5th March 23:00 (server time)
Presse Cooked Cheese (PCC)	7th February to 6th March 23:00 (server time)

Keep these dates in mind if you want to sign your cheeses up for the contests. Be careful, your cheese samples Shelf Life is important too. Your cheese must be at its maximum maturation when you will sign it up.

You can already plan your production and maturation process to make sure your cheese will be ready for the contests.

- Exhibitions Calendar :

Type of cheese	Exhibition date
Goat Cheese (GC)	2nd March (date SimAgri)
Soft Ripened Mody Cheese (SRMC)	3rd March (date SimAgri)
Soft Rind Washed Cheese (SRWC)	4th March (date SimAgri)
Blue Cheese (BC)	5th March (date SimAgri)
Pressed Uncooked Cheese (PUC)	6th March (date SimAgri)
